[SPECIAL DISPATCH TO THE OREGONIAN]

EASTERN DATES TO NOVEMBER 16

Louisville Disaster.

LOUISVILLE Nov 15 The Courier-Journal's Frankfort special says the Internal Revenue Steamboat Inspectors were passed last Saturday. The Collector reports from $72 to $120 per month during the last three months.

The Louisville Times says that Commissioner Delano's speech at Louisville was a great statesman like document, reasoning from sound premises to a correct conclusion. It was a calm, dispassionate, able and patriotic address, and will do much good.

Ship Seized.

NEW YORK Nov 15 The British Consul has seized the ship Lawrence, lying at Jersey City, on the charge of having on board a crew of Chinese. The vessel was cleared for Hong Kong, but it is supposed that she will go to Manila. The Consul says that the vessel was seized and a libel for debt filed by a party in New York who brought an attachment for $50.

Washington News.

CHICAGO Nov 16—A Washington special says Gov Low will not go to China till after the meeting of Congress. He will decline the position unless it is made a first class mission.

A Times special says a sufficient canvass of the Senate has been made to show that Stickney cannot be confirmed. The President and Secretary Fish have determined to recall him and appoint Gen Dix as Minister to Spain. A report is received showing that Stickney is guilty of criminal conduct in Madrid.

The movement against Gorham will probably be unsuccessful. Northern and Eastern Senators will not participate in the scheme to degrade him and only a portion of the delegation from the delegation from the Pacific coast is engaged in the attempt.

The Postmaster General is preparing for letting the great mail routes next Spring. Among those to be let March 8th are California 126 Oregon 41 Washington Territory 20 Idaho 19 Montana 6 Nevada 20 Utah 31 and Arizona 12.

General News.

NEW YORK Nov 16—Special from Washington say a meeting of California who will be held in a few days in that city to pass resolutions in memory of Judge Baldwin is looked the recent Pacific railroad accident.

Letters from reliable parties represent a formidable rebellion in the Red River country against the Canadian Confederation. The French population will not allow Gov McDougal lately sent from Canada to enter that settlement. His party was encamped two miles beyond the frontier at Pembina where they were met Nov 24 by a body of insurgents mounted and armed as described peremptorily ordered him back. The Governor is now encamped in Dakotah Territory awaiting events. Meantime the insurgents have organized a provisional government, and demand a Territorial Government, after the American fashion with a Legislature chosen by the people and a homestead act. It is said that Governor McDougal will apply to the Canadian Government for troops and to Washington for authority to pass them through the Northwestern States.

NEW YORK Nov 16—The guards at Ventnor sailed from Brooklyn Navy Yard on Sunday for Cuban waters. She fitted up with great dispatch the men being kept at work upon her night and day. The gunboat Pawnee on which a horrible cruelty has been committed on seamen arrived yesterday at Brooklyn Navy Yard. No orders are received for her destination. Work is very brisk at the yard, over 2,000 persons being employed.

Geo H Butler lately appointed Consul General to India has been removed.

European News.

NEW YORK Nov 16—The specials say Minister Washburne has recovered from a severe sickness and is attending to his duties. Senators Chandler and Ramsey are in Paris. The latter will leave about the 7th for Rome, having been successful in his efforts to conclude a postal treaty.

A Herald's special says it is currently reported in political circles to day that the Emperor has abandoned the hope to reorganize the Ministry or of forming an entirely new Cabinet at present. It is said that after the meeting and organization of the Legislative body on the 24th he will proceed to select a new Cabinet choosing from members who can command a majority of the votes in the Chamber on the most important questions. Rochefort is now regarded as certain of being chosen to represent the first electoral district of Paris. The troops in and around Paris are being quietly concentrated at different points but the prospects of popular tumult or disorder are regarded as quite remote.

Wonderful Gymnastic Feats

[From the N Y Times Nov 3

An immense crowd assembled last night at the Tammany to witness among other entertainments an extraordinary feat of the athletes the Hanlon Brothers to perfecting which it is understood they have devoted many months of unremitting toil. If time and labor can best well spent as is to be at once well employed and so it be really required the saying is certainly true in this instance. The gymnastic achievement in question is not short of astounding and it would moreover be appalling but for the practiced calmness and confidence which are at once so obvious in the appearance of the brothers and which reassure the audience to perils the escape from which seems hardly less than miraculous. What is done we will briefly describe. Horizontal bars which seem about two feet apart are swung parallel with the footlights at a height of perhaps thirty feet above them. At the two ends of these bars and also at thirty feet from each other below are there. A frail and slender lad climbs himself proceed to hang head downward. A short pendulum bars suspended two girls ascend the main mast by cords in this position they swing backwards and forward such a height that sometimes they touch the tops of the bars above. The gymnast then seizes with his teeth the left ankle of the right leg and in this position holding the child now by the hands now by the feet in the manner described passes himself through the intervening space and the little fellow is safely caught by the other brother and deafening cheers from the crowd. These extraordinary feats were performed with variations but always with the most perfect precision and elegance. In one instance the little fellow missed his brother's hands and was caught by the latter's feet only by the skin of his knees. The strain must have been terrible. It is impossible to see the slightest hesitation or nervousness in the performance which is literally as safe as it is possible to be. We should think that the Hanlon Brothers would be the famous performers in the world.

Operation of the Sinking Fund

For many years the Secretary of the Treasury has been in the habit of making a monthly statement of the operations of the Sinking Fund. This statement has been published in the newspapers, and has been looked for with much interest by the public. The Secretary has now determined to discontinue the publication of the statement, and to make it only once a year, in his annual report. The reason for this change is that the Sinking Fund has been so much reduced that the amount of gold which it has to purchase is very small, and the operations of the Fund are not of sufficient importance to warrant the publication of the statement. The Secretary has also determined to discontinue the publication of the statement of the amount of gold in the Treasury, and to make it only once a year, in his annual report.

FRESHEST GLEANINGS

It is announced at the Treasury Department that the new revenue steamboat inspectors who passed the recent last examination will receive salaries ranging from $2 000 to $2 500 according to the class of service to be rendered.

The Hartford Courant says that the Connecticut Democrats are in a great state of excitement in consequence of the refusal of Governor English to run for Governor again. It was a fatal mistake, and will result in the loss of the State.

The Leavenworth Kansas Times says that the Indians are being learned to fear their Great Father's troops are now for the most part peaceably subscribing to the Quaker policy. It sums up the case of the subject thus: After war peace, after bullets bread, after Custer Quaker guns.

The effort to counteract the influence of the agitation of the capital movers in the West is beginning to assume form. A paper has been prepared to be handed to the President with the request that he will take some cognizance of the matter in his forthcoming annual message, discountenancing the project of removal and to use his executive influence in stopping an agitation of the subject.

Somebody has discovered that but comparatively few college graduates marry. The records of Yale tell a mournful tale on this subject. Fully one-fourth of the graduates of that institution never marry. Of the graduates of the Wesleyan University during thirty five years of its existence, 836 only out of 910 are reported as having married. It is proposed to let the undergraduates marry as a remedy for this distressing state of things.

The Rocky Mountain News announces the recent discovery of mounds in the mountains similar to those which have already been found in the valley of the Mississippi. These mountain mounds are high up on the Rocky Mountains, 8 000 feet above the timber line, are of stone and evidently very ancient. They are partly of stones laid up, and partly of stones loosely thrown, covering areas of one or two hundred yards each. The slopes were evidently collected from the surrounding surface which is cleared of stones for some hundreds of yards around the mounds.

Long after the defeat of Mr Pendleton was conceded by other Democrats the Cincinnati Enquirer insisted upon it that he was elected. Two days after the election an excited German went into the counting room of that paper holding a copy of the sheet, displaying a rooster in hand, and made a very threatening demonstration at the solitary clerk in charge. "What do you mean? What do you want?" asked the frightened book keeper. "Vat vas I mean? retorted the unwelcome visitor. "Vat dar tyfel vas you mean vor puts yer lyin chicken rooster in your lying paper and makes me lose $50 droo him?"

The following dispatch relative to the New York election throws light on the causes which led to Republican losses in the interior of the State. There were some unexpected Republican defections. Morgan's friends united with Tammany to defeat Youngloves in the Fifteenth Senatorial District, because he held back the committees when Speaker of the House last winter to aid Fenton's election. Morgan cites as evidence of revenge on him Tammany Treasurer sent $13 000 into the district. Root's defeat in the Rochester district is attributed to the treachery of Lewis Seelye owner of the Rochester Chronicle.

One means by which the expenses are being rapidly reduced in the Navy Department is the fitting out of all vessels of war with full sails. The change is now nearly completed and orders have been sent to all squadrons to cease to use coal altogether, except in cases of necessity, and even then a full report of the reasons must be sent to the Department if those are not deemed sufficient the cost of the coal used is charged to the officer ordering it to be burned. Aside from saving expense however the design of the order was to restore the knowledge of managing sail vessels, to which little attention was given by our steam navy during the war.

LIGHTNING AS A PHOTOGRAPHER.—A correspondent of the Scientific American tells this marvelous but not unparalleled story of marks produced by lightning during a thunder storm in Washington county Maryland.

In an open lot near the residence of the late Capt. John Rossley about two and a half miles northwest of the town of Hancock in the county aforesaid stood an oak tree of medium size under which during a thunder storm, a sheep had taken shelter from the rain. On a limb or branch of the tree sat a robin directly over the sheep. A flash of lightning struck the tree the robin and the sheep. A thing but the latter. He saw the sheep lying under the tree and went to see if it had been killed. When we arrived we found the sheep dead lying upon the right or upper side of the sheep. Captain Rossley ordered his servants to skin the sheep which they did immediately and when they came to the spot on the right side where was the upper side where the body of the robin had been and where we had found it they noticed a strange appearance and called our attention to it. Our no small astonishment we found the outline of the robin on the inside of the skin and upon the flesh of the sheep. I am not able to give but that has always been my theory for the

The New England Thanksgiving

We are indebted to New England for the custom but there are many of us Western people who still gladly enter into the full spirit with which on the day for more than two centuries, has been observed in that section. There it is the great family festival of the year. It has brightened the lives of New England through all the vicissitudes of life and through all the changes wrought by time. We copy from a New England paper the following article relative to the good old fashion which that section of our country has enjoyed and which has now become thoroughly national.

In the dull November season when the crops are gathered and the farmer's work is done, there comes the Governor's sounding proclamation calling on the people to praise God for all his mercies. In the old times this was a somewhat formidable document, and its reading on Sunday was listened to with attentive ears. As the good pastor is arranging in his mind the heads of his Thanksgiving sermon, kind hearted the thoughts of housewives towards the preparation of the great annual Feast. What a bustle followed in every household! Bright fires burning ovens heated, tarts, puddings, pies and the ingredients for them, in course of preparation for the great Dinner of the year. There was no dishes without which Thanksgiving would not be Thanksgiving roast turkey and pumpkin pies! When in 1623 Gov Bradford proclaimed a Thanksgiving feast, that the people might rejoice over the fruits of their labors, he sent out a company for game and strove that day equally, and especially turkey has formed the principal dish on Thanksgiving Day. It is like the roast beef of old England, at many Christmas times. It is a native bird and its name is a misnomer arising from the belief in Europe, when it was introduced, that it originated in Turkey. Franklin thought the wild turkey should have been the emblem of the United States, being a truly indigenous and native bird. Who knows but the bow of country might have been strengthened if this feeling had been chosen as its emblem? Patriotism and Thanksgiving would then have had a common symbol, and the love of country being thus strengthened the love of country! As to the part which the golden fruit of the harvest field plays of the Thanksgiving table, let us read what Whittier sings

"All hearts Thanksgiving Day, but from East and from West
From North and South they come the prodigal and guest.
When the gray haired New Englander sees round his board
The old familiar faces of forgotten years restored,
When the care-worn man seeks his youth once more, and the wife
Meets her own sweet sister where the girls are all met,
What rapture the blessed what delight the eye!
What calls back the past like the rich pumpkin pie!"

The return of the wanderer from home, like the days of the prodigal son, has ever been welcomed with revelry, and as the good wife busies herself about the preparation of the pie the chickpeas she is thinking all the while of the returning children whose Thanksgiving Day will bring once more around the old family board. When the heart of the host and hostess is gladdened and refreshed we shall say that the Great Thursday of the year calling into action all that is done all good and kindly feelings, is not well spent, even though it is marked by excess.

Democratic Brutality in New York City.

The following letter, belongs to the New York Herald by a man who was obliged out of his vote by one of Tammany's acts, illustrates one phase of the brutality by which a large Democratic majority is obtained every year in New York City.

NEW YORK, Nov. 2, 1869.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE HERALD:

On Saturday, about 1 o'clock P. M. I was in the district of the eighth ward, registering myself. Somebody had been there before me and had registered both my name and residence. The Registry Board told me the only way I could get a vote was by swearing would be to appear there on Tuesday morning and watch for the "repeaters." I, not liking to do that went and obtained a warrant, which made oath as to who I was. They then put to my name, and I inquired why I could have any trouble on Tuesday, and they told me "No!" then throwing me on my guard, and I gave it no further thought. To-day I went to the polls and they refused my vote, saying that the "right" man had been there before me. I tried every way to get my vote in, even brought with me there to swear as to who I was, all to no purpose. Is there any redress? There is nothing to deter this man from taking my vote at any election. I finally demanded that they take my vote or have me arrested as a fraudulent voter, but they would do neither.

A Proclamation of Thanksgiving

BY THE [illegible]

WHEREAS Ulysses S Grant President of the United States has by [illegible] set apart Thursday the eighteenth day of November A D eighteen hundred and sixty nine as a day of public thanksgiving throughout the Country

Now therefore I as Chief Executive Officer of the State of Oregon do by this my proclamation request all the people of this State to properly observe said day

We should all lift up our voices in praise and thanksgiving unto Him Holy Name for the manifold blessings vouchsafed unto us as a people

We have been his favored children Liberty peace health and prosperity have been bountifully bestowed upon us Let our prayers laden with love and gratitude rise like holy incense to the throne of the God of nations and songs of praise and thanksgiving be upon every tongue

In testimony whereof I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of Oregon to be affixed Done at Salem on this the third day of November, Anno Domini one thousand eight hundred and sixty nine

Thanksgiving

To-day we are recommended to lay aside all secular employments and give thanks for the abundant blessings of the year now drawing to a close

In every twelvemonth there is enough of Providential favor to excite the gratitude and devout thankfulness of all considerate minds And this year has been one of more than usual bounty and blessing. In our own State the season has been one of fruitfulness and prosperity There is seldom a year of more marked healthfulness than the present has been The earth has produced abundantly Our fields have been rich with golden grain every industry has yielded a fair return and there are peace and plenty in all our borders

Our State has received a considerable accession to its population of industrious and useful people, new farms have been opened railroads have been placed fairly in process of construction, schoolhouses and churches have been built, and in all ways our resources and means for education, progress and happiness have been vastly increased. And, as a people, the inhabitants of our State possess in a large degree the crowning virtues of industry, intelligence and good order

In a national view the causes for thankfulness are great Our people are at peace with each other and with all the world. The affairs of the nation are being conducted with dignity and with an ability which is yielding the best results. We need not enumerate the many blessings, public and private, for which we are indebted on the part of the whole people. Our homes are invioled, industry has its rewards, the principles of civil and religious liberty are established in the hearts of the people. The opening vista of the future is glorious bright with promise So, that all have much to lift up in thanksgiving and praise; all hymns may be cheerful and happy, and all hearts may unite in giving expressions of gratitude to Him who forgets not the least of his children.

Work Without Wages.

We are no admirers of the Southern Democratic system of importing Chinamen to work for nine dollars a month. We would prefer not to see any body "imported" into America, but that the people of all nations ought to be left to come and go at their inclination and on their own account But it is curious to observe that those who have always thought it right to force the blacks to work for nothing, and who could see no wrong to the white laboring classes in this giving labor to capitalists without cost, are now insisting that the labor of the Chinese, because it is cheap, will ruin the country and oppress our white laboring population. It is not until labor has been crippled in this country by the abolition of every vestige of slavery, that we begin to hear from this class of people the clamor that working men are wronged, that capital is erushing, and that our whole social and business structure is built upon a system of wrong and oppression to the producing classes. We regret to see the Southern Democracy importing Chinamen to work for the small sum of nine dollars per month, because we believe that labor in any country in this country is worth more than this, but, we would like to have the Albany Democrat or some paper of its class which is descanting on this theme with paroxysms of virtue, address a paragraph to show why Chinese labor at nine dollars a month is more injurious to white workmen than negro labor for nothing These papers think that when a capitalist can get a Chinaman to work for nine dollars a month, it gives the capitalist a great advantage, and they are probably right, but none of them had a word to say against the excessive profits which capital obtained when it could get the labor of the negro without any wages at all. In fact they were in love with this no-wages system, and by every means in their power resisted its overthrow They were anxious that 'bloated wealth should have absolute control of labor and pay nothing for it; yet they now set themselves up as champions of high wages and impudently assert that the party which in spite of them, has ennobled labor by abolishing their pet system of work without pay is opposed to the interests of the working classes!

The Probable Effect

It is announced from time to time that the Supreme Court of the United States will certainly decide this winter that the Legal Tender Act is unconstitutional What will be the effect of such a decision on the value of the currency? We do not see how it could affect that value unfavorably The Supreme Court can only hold that debts contracted in Confederate money can not still be paid in that money; therefore it is manifest that, even if the legal tender act shall be declared unconstitutional, that tribunal would not permit a creditor to claim payment in gold for debts contracted in greenbacks A decision says a California journal, declaring unconstitutional the law making greenbacks a legal tender for debts contracted in gold, would have no effect upon the value of greenbacks, for they do not derive an iota of their value from this legal tender law nor would a decision that there was no constitutional authority for the issue of paper money by the United States have the slightest effect except to prevent further issues Greenbacks are already in circulation whether issued constitutionally or not the United States is still pledged to redeem them whether they are a legal tender for coin debts or not, they are a legal tender for debts contracted upon a currency basis, and it is upon this basis that the business of the whole country with the exception of the Pacific coast) is and for a long time has been transacted

Prim is afraid to sleep more than one room for two nights He fears rheumatism or assassination

In General

The Herald has a new way of managing its editorial stupidities It charges them on to its compositors This is rank injustice for in justice that the compositors will be fully justified in putting the offensive matter by and leaving it to rely wholly as it does now in part on Chinese labor

The Tennessee Legislature has passed a bill providing for a Convention to frame a new Constitution and will then submit the whole instrument to the Convention to the Commissioners of the various Counties Wherever this native village is connected, upon all the bottom of the bill it will very quickly get anywhere near the top

Harper's Weekly in an article full of charges of the gold gamblers that Jay Gould and Grant was interested in the latter says Washington was a sell He was touching the public pocket It the country believed it just as much as it believed that Grant was an accomplice in the late gold conspiracy whose designs he is known to have frustrated

In referring to the proposition to do away with Thanksgiving day the New York Herald says The observance of Thanksgiving is the fair to survive while the barn yards of New England produce a turkey or her gardens nurture a pumpkin, or her orchards render the basis of that pungent sass which has borne her renown to the remotest lands and latitudes—the parsons to the contrary notwithstanding "

The Chicago Tribune of the 7th inst contains the following dispatch from Madison relative to the Wisconsin election The Republican majority on the State ticket may fall below 8 000 There is but little a large majority for the amendment raising the Governor's salary to $5 000 a year This is the dispatch which was transmitted here but which was mutilated in the transmission so as to make the statement that the Republican majority was less than 850 We added a cypher and thus made it very nearly correct Does the "smarty" of the Herald who has had something to say in this connection about "forging dispatches," see the point?

There is more tribulation among the Democratic members of the Washington Territory Legislature. A large number of them publish a card addressed to J M Vansyale, member of the Council from Walla Walla accusing him of treachery to the party and demanding his resignation They say to him

You have deserted the Democrats when your services were most needed, and we take this occasion to ask your resignation of an office which you can no longer fill with credit to yourself or usefulness to our common constituents." It would seem to be fit that the names of Messrs Blunn and Clark, the factious Republicans of the Legislature should also be appended to this address Van, we believe, has not yet resigned It is amusing enough to the old Newell's name attached to such a paper as this, when it is well known that a few greenbacks would induce him to do the very same thing which he alleges that Vansycle is guilty of. He is always ready and anxious to be "corrupted "

OREGON.

James Jackson was found guilty of assault with intent to kill, at the late term of the District Court, at Lafayette, and sentenced to three years in the Penitentiary. The crime was committed near Sheridan, several weeks since.

The Sentinel says, "there is not a lawyer or doctor, at present dwelling in Josephine county" Blissful exemption remove the schoolmasters and Josephine will be an elysium indeed Then Cox could come to the Legislature forever

The three Hesses and Stephen Bean who have been confined in the Yamhill county jail for several months, under charge of murder, were released on last Friday The Grand Jury failed to obtain evidence sufficient to to warrant the finding of an indictment.

The McMinnville paper says "The mail which has been coming twice a week, to this place and Lafayette, from Portland, by way of Dayton, has fallen back on the original contract, and stops at Dayton This leaves us with three mails a week, two from Portland and one from the South

From the Yamhill Blade M S Hart, contractor, for the construction of the McMinnville canal, suspended work last week in consequence of the bad weather! It is proposed to resume operations again in February A number of the hands have been retained, and are employed in putting in a large amount of grain on a farm belonging to the company Six miles of the canal is now completed With ordinary success the work will be finished next summer.

Is the Pacific Railway Well Built.

The Commissioners appointed to make a full and final report of the condition of the Pacific Railroads have completed their investigations and sent in the results This has been a more thorough examination than any preceding one The report justifies the statement that we have a national highway which, in its general character complies substantially with the condition of the grants made by Congress Without going at all into the details of the report, it will be sufficient to state that they appear fully to justify the general conclusion of the Commissioners, who say

"The first question which comes before the Commission is what is meant by Congress in its various acts relating to the Pacific Railroad by the words 'first class railroad,' Railroads now ranked as first class in this country are far from being perfect at their opening and have been brought to their present high standard by large expenditures which a small traffic in the beginning could never have justified To require the Pacific Railroad to be brought at first to the standard which her roads have reached after years of heavy and lucrative business, would be waste of money It is evident to the Commission that this was not what Congress desired or intended If private corporations had built those roads with no Government subsidy it would undoubtedly been for their interest to build them at first at the lowest cost consistent with keeping them in operation and when built if a paying business should be developed to have gradually made the improvements which increasing traffic should render necessary But Congress had made large loan and an extensive land grant a part of which will be valuable and in return it required a better road than private interests would have built or ad that which is capable of transporting passengers and freight with rapidity safety and economy and a road as many of those in the North Western States In the judgment of the Commissioners the requirements of the law will be satisfied and the designs of Congress carried out if the roads be properly located with junctions graded and have substantial road beds of gravel with ballasting which with proper care shall be able to keep the track in good condition through the year permanent structures for crossing streams of water iron and not fastening water tanks buildings machinery and adequate rolling stock the more important machine shops and depots also being of masonry And the Commissioners expect to be able to say that in its opinion while such expenditure still need to be made those towards ards are such as to day

It is estimated that the cost of supplying deficiencies of construction on the central Pacific will be $578 000, and on the Union Pacific $5 [illegible] certainly not a large sum when the magnitude of expense of construction of the two roads are taken into account. The report on the Central Pacific states that "On examining the list of surplus rolling stock, materials and supplies submitted by the Company the Commission is of the opinion that, after making a liberal allowance this company has more than $1,000 000 worth of such property on hand beyond the immediate future wants of the road And the similar surplus on the Union Pacific is estimated at about $1 500 000 in value The report states

In concluding the report the commissioners are pleased to state that both companies are now making amount for on other respects rapid progress day by day bringing them nearer to the standard required by law The great importance of the value of which to the country is unestimable, and in which every citizen should feel a pride has been built at a half the time all well by Congress and in a manner and reliable means of communication between California Sacramento, well equipped and fully equipped carrying passengers and freight with safety [illegible] the requirements of law in a manner of the best class rails and best

The Lowest Depth of Infamy

The Washington Chronicle in the attempts to create Democratic capital with their corrupt party have reached the lowest depth of infamy and other virtuous have been enabled that party But Hurlburt's fall that party will with fresh The amount of [illegible] with [illegible] as follows

Hurlburt's previous [illegible] for the agents of the Gold Ring have renewed their attempt to identify the President with their conspiracy they have succeeded to the [illegible] that petition they now publish a letter addressed by Mrs Grant to Mr Corbin in which Gen Grant is represented as very much annoyed at Corbin's speculations he tries not to be influenced by them but fears he is "

Of the appropriation of a lady's private letter—supposing it to be genuine for the purpose of casting discredit upon her husband, nothing need be said The men who formed the gold gambling conspiracy are notlikely to be scrupulous in the choice of means for the attainment of their ends They who laid traps at street corners that they might be seen speaking to the President would not hesitate to pervert a private letter if its secession were necessary for their purpose

But see what the letter and the extract from the letter as forgeries No such letter as that which the Gold Ring gave to the public yesterday was ever written by Mrs Grant Not a line ever proceeded from that lady or from the President, in any manner recognized or directing gold or any other speculations Any letter which is alleged to have been written by either, of the nature of that which has been published, is a base and wicked fraud It is a forgery and one in perfect keeping with other measures resorted to by the gold conspirators

Whether Corbin or Butterfield is better or worse than he professes to be, is a small matter in the estimation of the public That which concerns the public in this connection is the conduct of its President And since it has been afresh impugned, we assert most positively, as we asserted in the first instance, that at no time has Gen Grant, or Mrs Grant had the remotest interest in any speculative transaction, whether relating to gold or bonds Neither with Corbin or Fisk, neither with Butterfield nor Gould, have they held correspondence touching the late gold conspiracy, and any allegation to the contrary is unqualifiedly false

An Established Fact — Brown's Bronchial Troches are widely known as an established remedy for Coughs Colds Bronchitis Hoarseness and other troubles of the Throat and Lungs Their good reputation and extensive use has brought out imitations represented to be the same Obtain only Brown's Bronchial Troches

COMMON COUNCIL.—Wednesday evening, November 17, 1869, the Common Council of the city of Portland met at the usual hour, his Honor Mayor Goldsmith presiding.

Present—Councilmen Bills, Breck, Hopkins, Lewis and Moffett.

The journal of the last meeting was read and approved.

PETITIONS, MEMORIALS, ETC.

The petition of J. H. Wilbur and others for the improvement of Columbia street, read and referred to the Committee on Streets and Public Property.

The petition of T. A. Savier and others for the erection of a lamp post at the corner of Fourth and Oak street, read and referred to the same committee.

The petition of H. L. Hoyt and others for the erection of a lamp post on the corner of Stark and Seventh street, read and referred to the same committee.

Petition of P. D. W. Hardenburg for permission to allow the present improvement of Madison street, opposite lot 4 in Block 20 to remain until it could make more substantial improvement than is contemplated by the present ordinance, was referred to the same committee.

The petition of Arthur Fable for use of part of Flint street for building purposes road, and the prayer thereof granted.

OFFICERS' REPORTS.

The City Attorney notified the Council that the case of Northrup vs. the City of Portland had been decided in favor of the plaintiff, and recommended that an appeal be taken to the Circuit Court. Recommendation adopted and the Attorney directed to take such appeal.

The Street Commissioner reported the gutters on the First streets in bad condition, and recommended that they be reconstructed so as to [illegible] the streets. Report referred to the Committee on Streets and Public Property.

ORDINANCES AGAINST THE CITY.

The following claims against the city were ordered paid: Oregon Herald, $15; Himes & Daly, $18; Estes & Stimson, $24; N. Northrup, $8; P. G. Baker, $9 10; Peter Conboy, [illegible]

ORDINANCES.

An ordinance to extend the time for the completion of the sidewalk on the north side of Morrison street to the alley, February, 1870, read a first and second time, rule suspended, ordinance read a third time and passed.

An ordinance introduced to provide for the improvement in a manner of improving Columbia street between Seventh and Eighth, read a first and second time; rule suspended, ordinance read a third time and passed.

MISCELLANEOUS.

A warrant was ordered drawn in favor of Estes & Stimson for $25 04 on the Front street fund, the balance due on their contract to lay the [illegible] pavement.

A motion for the erection of street lamps [illegible] to connect certain lamps with the gas [illegible]

Notice was given of a proposed change of the name of First street, from Montgomery to Harrison.

Petitions on Streets and Public Property [illegible] directed to have the names of the streets painted on the lamps and corner buildings throughout the city.

The Council adjourned.

TWENTY-TEN YEARS.—Mr. Thos. Fraser has kept the following weather record:

"DEAR SIR: As the impression [illegible] of the States, as also in Oregon, that Oregon is the home of rainy or rainy days than [illegible] you the inclosed table of the [illegible] kept daily for the past ten years, [illegible] 1859; which table will show that Oregon has [illegible] per cent more days without rain [illegible] this large proportion of the [illegible] the head of "sunshine and showers," [illegible] persons could follow their out-door [illegible] actions [illegible] Under the [illegible] rain or snow fell between sunrise [illegible] the head of "rainy," there was no [illegible] most of the time. [illegible] per cent. of the above days were without rain.

[illegible] Ice formed December 24, 1858. In 1859 [illegible] from over at times till March 1st—ice never over [illegible] thick; very little cold weather in December, [illegible] ice to speak of.

[illegible] 24th, 1860, the ground frozen for the first time [illegible] and for January 25th ice and frost all [illegible] February 1st. I planted potatoes February 8th; [illegible] 17th planted onion sets and onion seeds 2 April [illegible] planted corn.

[illegible] 24, 1862, Columbia river frozen so that the [illegible] could not run. thermometer 10° below [illegible] point. January 8th, snow a foot deep; cancelled [illegible] sleighing. On 17th, Wallamet frozen hard enough [illegible] on foot. On 24th, ice gone out of Wallamet [illegible] March 10th, snow all disappeared.

[illegible] 7th, 1863, Columbia river closed with ice. On [illegible] Wallamet closed over so as to stop the steamers [illegible] to Oregon City, until the 25th. No rain fell [illegible] the 1st of July until September 31—63 days—and [illegible] still continuing my daily record.

HOT COFFEE.—A few days since a man stole a bolt of [illegible] from Rosbland's store, and got away with it. On [illegible] same day he went to one of the up-town butcher [illegible] and took down from one of the front hooks, a part [illegible] a salmon carcass and taking it back to the person in [illegible] offered it for sale. The butcher didn't want [illegible] so the salmon vendor sailed off with the meat [illegible] and quickly sold it at another place. Yesterday the [illegible] caught him at work on the east side railroad and [illegible] him over to the city. The cloth was recovered.

THE BURNETT-MOFFORD TRAGEDY.—The Capital Chronicle, Boise City, has the following concerning this fatal and unfortunate affair:

"We now give Judge Scanlon's story as nearly as possible. Immediately after Mofford and Dwight passed Burmester and Scanlon, Burmester turned to Scanlon and remarked, 'did you see that?' Scanlon answered that he did not, and asked what it was. Burmester replied that Mofford shook his fist at him. Burmester then turned and asked Mofford what he meant by it. Mofford replied that he—Burmester—was a son of a b—h, and immediately drew his revolver and fired at Burmester. Three shots were fired by Mofford and three by Burmester, the third shot from Burmester's pocket derringer or revolver hitting Mofford in the right temple. Mofford fell and remained unconscious from the last exploding shot, Monday morning. The other side now deserves the same hearing. Dwight's statement differs somewhat from Judge Scanlon's. Dwight thinks that but two shots were fired by Mofford and three by Burmester—he does not remember who fired—their pistols flash—was taken unaware and consequently was somewhat excited. What kills and non-kills also saw the firing at a distance, and their statements agree. They both say that the pistols fired up to the well; Burmester's first shot, that before the report of the first pistol was heard by them the flash of the second shot came toward Iowa—Judge M. further was seen. That the person up the road fired the second shots, and the person nearest town but two."

CIRCUIT COURT—UNION, JUDGE.—Proceedings of Wednesday, November 17th.

Lyman Williams vs Edgar Poppleton. Submitted to Jury.

B B Arrowsmith vs W. H. Anderson, continued for the term.

B B Arrowsmith vs T. B. Brook; continued for the term.

State of Oregon vs Frank M. Parland, amended indictment filed, having been re-submitted to the grand jury.

State of Oregon vs Ed Kennedy, submitted to jury.

State of Oregon vs Andrew Derringer; plea of "Not Guilty" withdrawn and that of "Guilty" submitted. Sentence set for pronouncing sentence.

State of Oregon vs Jacob H Lee; plea of guilty of assault with a dangerous weapon. The District Attorney stated to the court that defendant was a mate of a vessel, and being a stranger, and the case not an aggravated one the court should impose the lowest penalty—sentenced to thirty days in the county jail.

Sheriff ordered to summon six additional jurors.

SUPPOSED MURDER.—A correspondent at Monticello writes that "upon examination of the body of the man found dead on Sunday, and the surrounding premises, it is believed that he was murdered in a schoolhouse near by and then dragged for concealment to the place where found. The body was found in the brush by the side of a small creek, the coat turned over the head as if the body had been dragged by it. The skull was crushed, as if a blow had been dealt with a heavy club, and such a club was found in the schoolhouse, where, also, blood was found. Blood was found on a fence between the schoolhouse and the creek, and a trail plainly showed where the body had been dragged along from the fence to the creek. It is supposed the man had entered the schoolhouse to sleep, as passers-by sometimes do, the house being unused, and that while asleep, the assassin entered and dealt the fatal blow for purpose of revenge or robbery. Nothing was found upon the person to indicate who the man was or where from. No inquest was held, but the people of the neighborhood gave the remains decent burial."

LOCAL BREVITIES.—It is stated that parties at East Portland contemplate the erection of a hotel, near the East Portland Savings Bank.

The banks and most places of business will be closed to-day for Thanksgiving.

The O. S. N. Co. has reduced the rates of freight on flour between Portland and points up the Columbia about 33½ per cent. See advertisement.

The dedication of Odd Fellows Hall at Oregon City will take place to-day.

The Brig Brewster brought up about 225 tons of railroad iron for the East-Side railroad.

The steamship Ajax came over to her dock on this side yesterday afternoon, and is now taking in cargo for San Francisco.

We heard it stated last evening that the steamer Geo. S. Wright would go to the Cascades to-day, but could not learn certainly for what purpose.

VALUABLE GUIDE.—We have, from Mr. R. J. Northrup, a map of the Western States, Plains, California and Oregon, showing the route and stations of the Union and Central Pacific railroads. The map wipes out our beautiful Wallamet river, and substitutes for it "Pudding River," and locates Portland at its junction with the Columbia. Portland-on-Pudding River is good, though the association of words is not poetical, nor according to Webfoot ideas of situations. Mr. Northrup says that the railroad passengers coming west are each furnished with one of these maps, with the understanding that they are travelers' guides! It is a pretty conceit of the railroad men; but if the rest of the map is as precisely correct as the Oregon portion of it, its information is indeed such as cannot be obtained elsewhere.

EMMET GUARD'S BALL.—The Emmet Guard of this city, will give their second annual ball, at the Washington Guard's Armory, this evening. The following gentlemen constitute the committees who will have charge of the affair: Committee of Arrangements—Capt. E. Cahalin, Lieut. J. Brady, P Gaskley, Sergt. T. Johnson, Phil. Saunders, Sergt. N. O'Neil, D. McLoughlin, B. Stunst, Lieut. R. McQuillan, T. Moloy, T. Ryan, J. Lyons, W. F. Burk. Reception Committee—Capt. E. Cahalin, Lieut. J. Brady, Phil. Saunders, W. F. Burk. Floor Managers—Capt. E. Cahalin, Lieut. J. Brady, C. McLoughlin, T. Jackson, Lieut. R. McQuillan. Tickets, $2 50. Excellent music has been engaged and the guests will doubtless have a pleasant time.

THANKSGIVING SERVICES.—Religious services will be celebrated to-day, as follows:

At Trinity church, at 11 o'clock A. M. Sermon by Bishop Morris.

At the Synagogue Both Israel at 11 o'clock A. M. Sermon in English.

Union services at the M. E. church at 11 o'clock. Sermon by Rev. E. C. Anderson.

At the Unitarian church at half past ten o'clock. Subject of sermon: "The Thoughts of God."

Rev. J. H. Wilbur will preach a Thanksgiving sermon, at 11 o'clock at Ames' Chapel, east Portland.

At the Catholic Church, High Mass will be celebrated at 9 o'clock A. M.

OAK FIRE THEATER.—The announcement of East Lynne for last evening brought out a good house, as it nearly always does. Mrs. Bates sustained her character of Lady Isabel and Madame Vine with her usual success. In this line of personations, she has very few superiors on the stage. The other characters in the cast were supported creditably, and the audience testified its approbation of the general rendition of the piece. To-night, "Macbeth," and to-morrow night "Elizabeth"—new to a Portland audience.

BENEFIT TO MRS. BATES.—On Friday evening Mrs. Bates will take a benefit, on which occasion she will appear for the first time as Queen Elizabeth, in Ristori's great play of "Elizabeth." The popularity of the beneficiary with the Portland public is so well assured that those who desire seats should make early arrangements to secure them. The house will be crowded.

BOUND TO GO THROUGH.—Work on the East Side railroad goes on constantly in spite of the drenching rains. We understand that yesterday Mr. Holladay sent over to the workmen a lot of water-proof coats and boots, to protect them as much as possible from the horrible weather. The work is to go on, rain or shine, till the twenty miles shall be built.

EXPORT MANIFEST.—The Cambridge, for Honolulu, takes out the following freight: For McCraken, Merrill & Co., 947 sks flour, 80 sks wheat, 242 sks oats, 84 cases pilot bread, 43 bbls salmon; 147 239-1000 ft lumber for J. O'Connor, 208 hds fruit; for Allen & Lewis, 26 bbls and 58 hf bbls salmon, and 150,000 feet of lumber from Astoria.

LAID UP FOR THE WINTER.—The dredger, lately at work at Swan Island, has been laid up since last Friday, on account of bad weather and high water. It is not probable that work will be again resumed before late next spring.

JURIES OUT.—At the hour of the adjournment of the Circuit Court, yesterday, the juries in the cases of Williams vs Poppleton and State of Oregon vs Kennedy, were still out and not agreed as to verdicts.

MAILS FOR THE SOUTH.—On and after to-day the southern mails will arrive and depart by the Oregon City steamer Alert, leaving here at 5 o'clock A. M., and arriving at 3 P. M.

CALIFORNIA MAILS.—The mails for California, per steamship Ajax, will close to-morrow at a quarter past four o'clock—forty-five minutes prior to the hour of sailing.

NO COMMERCIAL.—Mr. Bull requests us to say that no Commercial will be issued this afternoon. The announcement was accidentally omitted from his paper.

MACBETH TO NIGHT.—By request, Shakespeare's great tragedy of Macbeth will be played at Oro Fino Theater this evening. The cast will be the same as before.

HOLIDAY FOR THE PRINTS.—Observing the usual custom to give all hands a chance to enjoy Thanksgiving Day, we shall issue no paper to-morrow morning.

ADJOURNED FOR THANKSGIVING.—The Circuit Court, yesterday, adjourned over till Friday morning, on account of Thanksgiving to-day.

SAILING POSTPONED.—The sailing of the steamship Ajax for San Francisco has been postponed till five o'clock, Friday afternoon.

CLOSING OF POST OFFICE.—The Post Office will be closed to-day from 11 o'clock A. M. to 4 P. M., on account of Thanksgiving.

LATEST STYLES.—Those celebrated Scotch waterproofs have just arrived per steamer Ajax and are for sale by Clarke, Henderson & Cook.

Brigham Young's mothers in law weigh four and a half tons or thereabouts.

USE KANE'S IMPERIAL CONDENSED SOAP. It washes without rubbing. For sale by Allen & Lewis, Corbitt & McCleay, R. H. Smouth and all retailers.

The Railroads are continuous to arrive by hundreds of cars. PORTLAND, Oregon, Nov 15 1869.

MESSRS EVERSON & HAINES, General Agents New England Mutual Life Insurance Company, Boston

Gentlemen—On my own behalf and in the name of my infant children, I beg to thank you, and through you the New England Mutual Life Insurance Company of Boston, for its munificence in paying me my unexpended policy on the life of my husband. On the 21st January, 1869, misfortune compelled me to forego the payment of the last premium, which upon examination by any other company would have lost me my policy, but I am now rejoiced with the receipt of the amount of the policy (less the amount of the unpaid premium only), thanks to the equity of the Massachusetts Legal Laws, that must bless many widows and their children. I recommend the New England Mutual to all who would provide against poverty and misfortune. Sincerely thanking you again, gentlemen, for the payment, and also for your generous and gentle manly sentiments in the matter.

Respectfully, BETSEY MILLER.

PORTLAND, OREGON, Nov 15, 1869

MESSRS EVERSON & HAINES, General Agents of the New England Mutual Life Insurance Company of Boston:

Gentlemen—Having taken a lively interest in the affairs of the large and destitute family, left by an old resident of this city, who died Aug 2, 1869, and who was insured in the New England Mutual Life Insurance Company, we take pleasure in making the following statement for the information of the public:

A. E. C. Miller was insured by ordinary Life Policy No. 11,054, bearing date January 21, 1863. He paid annual payments to January 21, 1868, inclusive. Since then nothing has been paid. He died August 2, 1869, over eighteen months after last payment of premium, yet your company, working under the Equitable Legal Laws of Massachusetts, pays the widow and orphans the whole policy, deducting only the premium due; while in all other companies doing business here, about which we know anything, the policy would long since have been forfeited.

By the New England Mutual, the widow has been paid $4,566 60. This we consider munificent, more especially when we take into consideration that the family would not have received a cent from any company doing business on this coast. This in our estimation is enough to recommend this company above all others. This is Equity, this is Mutuality. We, therefore, commend this company to the public, as the only company that has so behaved.

We herewith inclose you the acknowledgments of the widow.

Respectfully yours, etc.

Gentlemen—Your favor of yesterday, inclosing "acknowledgments of Mrs. Miller," is at hand.

Please accept our thanks for the voluntary justice you have done the company we represent.

Yours Very Truly,

General Debility is Nature's Appeal for Help.

Thousands of persons, without any specific ailment, are the victims of languor and lassitude. The unthinking are apt to confound this species of inaction, with laziness; whereas it usually arises from a want of organic energy, for which the subjects of it are no more responsible than the near-sighted are for their defective vision. Such persons, although they may be free from pain, are as truly invalids, and as much in need of medical aid, as if they were tormented with the pangs of acute disease. They require a tonic and ALTERATIVE, that will rouse and regulate their torpid organizations. In cases of this kind, HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS produce an immediate and most favorable effect. The debilitated and desponding valetudinarian, who feels as if he were but half alive, who blushes company, and has no relish either for business or pleasure, is metamorphosed, by a bitter course of this most potent vegetable antagonist, into quite a different being. The change effected by the BITTERS in his bodily and mental condition, is a surprise to himself and to his friends. He mopes no longer; the active principle of life, which seemed to have died out of him, is re-awakened, and he feels like a new man. Remembering that debility is not only an affliction itself, but an invitation to disease, no time should be lost in recruiting the broken-down system with this choicest and most potent of all TONICS AND RESTORERS.

Nothing at all in the Paper To Day

Nothing at all in the paper to-day
Only a car or two where it lay
A girl or two has got her head away,
Not being a widow or Hiawatha either
Or a drunk took up or cutting a swell
With the usual rushing market to listen
Scarcely a row for lost taken a life
Tell us of the window the Jew-bursts glisten
But that's all in the regular way—
There's a thing at all in the paper to-day

Nothing at all in the paper to-day
To assure there's a war on hand
Fell down in the street as so many may
In this prosperous Christian land
Or two young girls with new-made grief
Maddened have plunged in the inky waves
Or a father has burnt his last shirt in a thrift
Or a mother has been robbed of her daughters
Things that occur in the regular way
There's nothing at all in the paper to-day

There's nothing at all in the paper to-day
Unless you care about things to be said
How great rich rogues for their crimes must pay
Though all gentility cries out 'pity'
Like the meanest shabby that's been tried
There's a case to-day if I'm not mistaken
The bad lady borrowed as much cash as will
To pay some money he's taken betting
But there's nothing in that that's out of the way
There's nothing at all in the paper to-day

Nothing at all in the paper to-day,
But the births and bankruptcies, deaths and marriages
But life's events in the old survey
With virtue begging, and vice in carriages
And kindly hearts under broken grey,
For Goodness belongs not only to clowns
And o'er others than lords does sun bear away,
But what do I read?— Drowned! wrecked! Did I say
There was nothing at all in the paper to-day?

SIR SAMUEL BAKER'S EXPEDITION EGYPTIAN EXPLORERS AND TERRITORIAL ACQUISITIONISTS

The Alexandria correspondent of the London Telegraph, writing of the 9th of October, supplies the following details on the above named expedition additional to those already reported

Three several parts of Sir Samuel Baker's expedition have already left for the rendezvous at Khartoum. The first departure took place about three months ago, when 1,200 soldiers started from Cairo. This party will be joined by other troops, and on its arrival at Khartoum will form part of a small army of 2,000 infantry, 250 irregular cavalry or Bashi Bazouks, and three batteries of guns. The infantry will have to perform the whole journey on foot, by short stages, along the banks of the canal, and may be expected at Khartoum in December. This party was followed shortly afterwards by a quantity of merchandise, 400 camel loads, that was sent by the Korosko desert to Khartoum, to be used for barter with the natives. In the middle of August a flotilla of thirty-five large barges and seven large river steamers, nearly empty, left Cairo, with orders to push on as fast as possible, so as to be able to ascend Dongola cataract before the waters begin to diminish. Last week news was received here that the flotilla had succeeded in ascending this formidable cataract, and will ere this have reached Khartoum. If these vessels had not succeeded in ascending the cataract, the expedition would have been delayed till next year, for from Khartoum to Gondokoro the land is all marshy and perfectly impassible for troops, the enemy are therefore intended to convey the expedition between the these two points. There yet remain here two other portions of the expedition, which will leave as soon as the two steel steamers built by Mr. Samuda arrive from England. The first party, under the direct command of Sir Samuel Baker, whose firman styles him "Governor General of all the Provinces of Central Africa that he may succeed in answering to Egypt," will leave here for Sopadin, and from thence across the desert on dromedaries to Berber, where he will take steamer to Khartoum. Sir Samuel will be accompanied by Lady Baker, Lieutenant Baker, R. N. (nephew of Sir Samuel) and Dr. Gedge.

He also takes with him some rockets and light guns for mountain warfare. The other part of the expedition, under the temporary command of Mr. E. Higginbotham, civil engineer, who also has served a firman from the Viceroy, for dealing all persons between Cairo and Khartoum to afford him every possible assistance, will take the Nile route as far as Korosko. Mr. Higginbotham is styled "Engineer-in-Chief to all the Provinces of Central Africa about to be annexed to Egypt." He takes with him the two steel steamers, six English and forty Arab mechanics, and the rest of the baggage and merchandise for barter, and will have to ascend the Assouan cataract which at the present moment is an easy matter, on account of the high Nile; but if his departure is delayed much longer he will find it difficult to drag his heavy laden boats above the cataract. At Korosko Mr. Higginbotham will find about 3,000 camels waiting, and he will at once strike across the desert to Abu Hamad, a journey of about eleven days, and thence by Berber along the banks of the river to Khartoum, sixteen days. At Khartoum Sir Samuel will resume the command of the whole expedition, and go by the river to Gondokoro, up to which point there are luckily no rapids or falls On the top of a mountain about fifteen miles south of Gondokoro there is a large plateau, where Sir Samuel means to form his grand depot and first station. The position is very healthy, and the expedition is provided with a quantity of corrugated iron roofing, on account of the periodically heavy rains that fall in this region. Here the real difficulties of the expedition begin, for a few miles further on commences the territory of the Barry tribe.

This tribe is very warlike, jealous of strangers and difficult to deal with. There is no practicable road through their country, and the Nile from this point to about ninety miles further up is impassable on account of the number of rapids and falls that abound there. It will, therefore, be necessary to make a road through this inhospitable country, and this will be the work of Mr. Higginbotham, while Sir Samuel Baker tries to bring the tribe to reason. Arrived at the point where it is supposed the rapids ceased one of the steel steamers will be put together and Sir Samuel will proceed on an exploring expedition as far as the lakes. If he finds the river navigable the other steamers will be constructed on his return, and he will proceed with a certain number of men to the lakes. He will establish fortified posts at every available spot and set to work to subjugate the different tribes and make them pay tribute to the Egyptian government. In the meantime other troops will be forwarded from Cairo till he has enough men to occupy all these posts At every post there will be a commercial depot, under the management of a Copt, who will have to enter into relations through barter with the natives. All the soldiers chosen for the expedition are agriculturists, and they will have to cultivate farms round about the forts They are provided with several quantities of cotton seed

Connecticut Morals

AN ACCOMMODATING HUSBAND.

The Hartford Courant tell of a fickle wife who left her husband in Providence and went to Hartford to live with another man. Pining of him this discontented woman left her paramour also, and reported that fact to the Chief of Police in this terse expression. "I've left that man and there's trouble." The Courant says:

What that trouble was may be here stated. It appears that her husband, not knowing of her whereabouts, had come to Hartford and secured work in one of the machine shops here, where he met the very man who had run away with his wife Instead of getting square upon his dignity or setting up a shooting gallery, he treated the matter of seduction as being the business of his wife entirely, who had a mind of her own and probably knew what she was about, but he desired some sort of a settlement. In fact, he didn't know but she had been imposed upon, and was willing to be forgiven If it was so, and she would come back and live with him again, he wanted to know it The other fellow, who sympathized with him in his troubles, as he might to have done under the circumstances, said that he had left the woman, as they did not live happily together, and if it would be any accommodation he would go home with the husband and call upon her, and further encourage his influence to bring about a reconciliation So much kindness volunteered at that, nearly brought the husband to tears, and he took the hand of the sloper, and, pressing it warmly, gazed into his eyes affectionately as much as to say, "this is too much for" But finally both started and sought the woman though instead of talking fairly with her it was proposed that of these two men, who had each been rejected she turned those out any way or she would be prosecuted for adultery. Time was given her to consider this delightful proposition and meantime she visited the police Headquarters and had the conference above referred to

NEW PATENT SHAFT COUPLING!
W. E. COOPER

HAS PURCHASED THE RIGHT FOR THIS County for the above Patent, and will hereafter use it in the construction of all the Vehicles manufactured at his extensive

Carriage Factory,
Corner of Second and Morrison Streets.

He respectfully refers to the following

CARD.

Having examined the New Patent Shaft Coupling, invented by H. B. Hoagland, we feel pleasure in informing the public that in our opinion it is the safest and best method of connecting shafts or tongues to all vehicles that has ever been used.
It fastens without bolt or screw, and is therefore, easily and speedily separated It rests on Gutta Percha so as to be entirely free from the rattling sound which so often disturbs restless horses It is easily changed so that the shafts or tongue may be doubled in an instant, and is convenient, safe and secure.
It is easy to change to this style of coupling any buggy or other vehicle now in use, and with small expense. We have come to the conclusion to use this new invention ourselves, and recommend its use in all cases We consider it far superior to this Brewster Patent, heretofore considered the best in use.
